

The Florida Adult Day Services Association

Since its inception in 1983, the Florida Adult Day Services Association (FADSA) has provided leadership, advocacy, education, planning and development of adult day services in Florida. FADSA is highly regarded and respected within the aging network as a leader in the long term care continuum. Through the promotion of quality day services ranging from respite and social programs to comprehensive adult day health centers, FADSA is shaping the future of Florida's adult day services industry.

Adult day centers are designed to serve adults who are elderly, frail, have health problems, disabilities or cognitive impairments such as Alzheimer's disease or a related memory disorder.

FADSA believes that the future for adult day services is filled with excitement and promise as more people become aware of the tremendous value adult day services providers offer and the benefit to those who receive our care.

The National Adult Day Services Association

The National Adult Day Services Association (NADSA) is the leading voice of the rapidly growing adult day services industry and the national focal point for adult day services providers.

NADSA's mission is to enhance the success of its members through advocacy, education, technical assistance, research and communication services.

NADSA-FADSA Partnership

NADSA and FADSA represent the interests of adult day services through effective national/state advocacy, providing educational and networking opportunities and promoting research.

The organizations demonstrate the strength and cooperation that can be achieved by working together.

NADSA is committed to providing its members with information and support on public policy advocacy, communication regarding best practices and the further development and promotion of the industry.
